This agreement will automatically be renewed each successive heating season. We reserve the right not to renew if changes of wiring, or additional controls are required in order to provide dependable, trouble-free operation. If, however, you move, sell your house, or for any other reason wish to end deliveries, this plan may be cancelled. This plan is also transferable to a new owner, if you sell your home.

OIL DELIVERY PLAN

The customer agrees to accept their requirement of fuel oil at our established price at the time of delivery for a period of one year. We will leave or mail our printed delivery ticket which you agree to accept as evidence of the quantity delivered, without necessity of our obtaining your written receipt for any delivery, unless other procedures have been agreed upon in advance.

Terms of payment are subject to the approval of our credit department. After credit is approved, all bills are to be paid 15 days upon receipt of invoice. In instances where any item has become past due, or budget payments become delinquent, automatic delivery and credit privileges will be revoked through the company's automatic accounting/delivery system.

A charge will be made to start the burner if a will call customer or past due credit account allows the tank to run dry. Two working days notice must be given on will call or cash deliveries.
